GENERAL NEWS.

BY TELEGRAPH TO THE OREGONIAN

A Bad Case.

St. Louis, Nov 16.—A [illegible] Texas says that W[illegible] one of the wealthiest and [illegible] citizens of the place [illegible] taking morphine. The cause [illegible] criminal intimacy between his wife, one of the most beautiful women in [illegible] Conrad Haney, one of the most [illegible] and eloquent ministers in Texas [illegible] said to be greatly excited over the affair, and threats against the personal safety of the saintly seducer have been made.

Strike among Coal Miners Impending.

CLEVELAND, Nov 16.—Prominent coal operators and mine owners of the Tuscarawas valley held a meeting here to-day to consider a demand of the miners for an advance of 25 ten cents per ton for mining. The present price is seventy cents for 2100 pounds un-screened. The meeting decided to allow the miners eighty five cents for 2000 pounds after screening, which is practically no gain to the miners. It is thought that these terms will not be accepted and a long strike be inaugurated in the Tuscarawas valley.

More Receptions to Grant in Chicago—Mrs. Grant Suffering from Exhaustion.

CHICAGO, Nov 14.—A general public reception was given by General Grant yesterday at the Grand Pacific hotel from 3 to 5 o'clock. In the evening a private dinner, given by John B. Drake, came off in the evening. General and Mrs. Sheridan, Gov Cullom, wife and daughter, Governor and Mrs Gear and other personal friends participated.

Mrs. Grant is exhausted by the unusual physical strain imposed upon her of late and will take the necessary rest for a few days.

Accident on the Chicago and Alton Road.

A south bound freight train on the Chicago and Alton road went through a bridge at Wood River, near Alton this morning, six freight cars falling into the river. A brakeman was killed and the engineer and fireman were injured. The officers cannot account for the accident as the bridge was new and extremely well made.

Three Women Drowned.

COLUMBUS, Ind., Nov 16.—The wife and two daughters of Albert Woodward were drowned in the Clifty river this afternoon while returning home with Mr Woodward in a spring wagon. The stream had risen so that in attempting to ford they were swept away. Woodward was washed ashore and saved.

Charge of Fraud.

NEW YORK, Nov 16.—Julius B Pings of the firm of Pinners & Pings, glovers, Broadway, has been arrested on a charge of defrauding the government by means of fraud in claims and false statements.

Disaster on Lake Erie.

BUFFALO, Nov. 16.—The schooner C. G. Mead, from Detroit, with 24,000 bushels of wheat, capsized and foundered Friday 30 miles east of Point Pelee. The crew, consisting of the captain and seven men, are all supposed to be lost, with the exception of Jack Davis, who was at the wheel and was picked up by the propeller Milwaukee after being nearly 13 hours in the water. The lost schooner was commanded by Captain Rose, of Detroit. James Smith, of Buffalo, was mate.

Drought in Virginia—Praying for Rain.

[illegible], Va., Nov. 16.—A drought which has prevailed in this section of the country for the past three months is causing much anxiety and uneasiness. Wells and streams are drying up and in some adjacent counties the people are compelled to travel for miles to procure in search of water for family use. In several churches here to-day prayers were offered for rain.

The New Cable.

NORTH EASTHAM, Mass., Nov 16.—At six o'clock this morning the shore end of the new French cable was landed, and soon afterwards signals were exchanged with the steamer Faraday, which will leave to-morrow and make the final connection 17 miles out.

The Nicaragua Canal.

NEW YORK, Nov 15.—The Commercial Bulletin to-day discredits the statement that the [illegible] have promised financial aid to the Nicaragua canal scheme, having, it says, the best of reasons for so doing. It says the route for the river and railroad route for [illegible] Cape Tiburon to the Gulf of San Miguel is now under consideration of American capitalists, with good prospects of its being adopted and put before the public. The cost will not exceed $35,000,000.

Soothing Syrup for the New York Democracy.

A letter from Syracuse to the Herald says efforts are being made with prospects of success to harmonize the conflicting elements of the democratic party of this state having the endorsement of Senator Kernan, Judge [illegible], Judge Pratt, Editor Purcell and Senator Raines, who have held a conference upon the subject. Ex Gov Seymour was approached upon the subject of becoming a candidate for the presidency but peremptorily declined, although urging harmony in order to secure the state to the democracy.

The New Cable.

NORTH EASTHAM, Mass., Nov 15.—The steamer Faraday came to anchor off Nauset at 12 A. M. The sea is smooth and favorable for landing the cable.

WASHINGTON CITY.

The Wheat Yield.

WASHINGTON, Nov 15.—Returns of November show an increase in the wheat crop of 25,000,000 bushels over last year. This increase is the result of a very large yield in all the states bordering on the Ohio and Missouri rivers. Northwestern states show little variation from last year. Kansas and California both decline in yield. Texas, among the southern states, is the only one that gains in yield this year.

Resignation of Secretary Seward—Its Probable Cause.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 15.—It is generally believed here that the resignation of Assistant Secretary Seward will be speedily followed by the resignation of his cousin, Geo. F. Seward, from his position of minister to China. It is not improbable that the phrase "controlling family situations," employed in the official announcement of the assistant secretary's resignation as the explanation of its cause is meant enough to cover, not only the illness of his amiable wife, but also any embarrassments connected with the serious charges now pending against his cousin the minister and ex consul. The personal integrity of Frederick Seward is not questioned by any one who knows him but it would be manifestly embarrassing for him to hold this winter a position the [illegible] of which might possibly be used [illegible] the acts of a near relative on trial and final investigations.

The Census.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 16.—The formation of supervisors' districts under the provisions of the census act of March 3 1879 has been [illegible] by Superintendent Walker except in regard to the states of Massachusetts and [illegible]. The appointments of supervisors will be made in each instance by selection of [illegible] residing within the bounds of the respective districts. These officers will practically control the thousand [illegible] appointments necessary for the work of taking the census and are to be filled by [illegible].

Postal Finances.

WASHINGTON, Nov 11.—A D Hazen, third assistant postmaster general, has completed his annual report. [illegible] the postoffice department during the last fiscal year in the divisions of [illegible] stamps, etc. The total receipts of the [illegible] for the twelve months ending June [illegible] were $284,465 more than those of the preceding year and [illegible] estimate [illegible] receipts [illegible] demand [illegible] envelopes [illegible] to $760,452 [illegible] the fiscal year 1879.

Jay Gould's Doings.

ST. LOUIS, Nov 16.—Pretty well [illegible] reports are in circulation here [illegible] Jay Gould and his associates [illegible] a controlling [illegible] San Francisco railroad [illegible] Judge Baker [illegible] some 250 shares [illegible] and that Gould has [illegible] with other [illegible] who claim to know of the workings [illegible].

THE UNITED STATES MINTS.

Annual Report of Burchard, General Director—

Business Done by the Various Mints and the Expense of Running Them—Estimates of Bullion Production for 1879, Etc., Etc.

SPECIAL TO THE OREGONIAN

WASHINGTON, Nov 16.—The annual report of the director of the mint [illegible] with passages of special [illegible] interest. Director Burchard, referring to the San Francisco mint, says [illegible] provided with every facility for executing a large amount of work and is still [illegible] excellent condition. Unlike the [illegible] coinage mints [illegible] of the [illegible] superintendent [illegible] and depositors have been [illegible] The coinage of [illegible] and prompt settlement made for deposits. The coinage of standard silver dollars was larger than at any other mint and could have been readily increased if sufficient silver bullion had been offered at the government at the market rates. The total expenditures at the mint during the last fiscal year were $[illegible] as against a total of about $[illegible] Philadelphia $1[illegible] at Carson $[illegible] at Denver $[illegible] at New Orleans and $[illegible] at the New York assay office. The total deposits and purchases of gold and silver bullion during the same period were as follows: San Francisco $43,320,83[illegible]; Philadelphia $19,340,[illegible]; Carson $1,339,000; Denver $417,000; New Orleans $1,106,000; New York $18,265,261.

The director recommends that appropriations be made to complete the Carson mint edifice as originally planned and also to add a second floor to connect with the refinery, the present capacity of which he considers too limited. He states as the reason for the small amount of coinage of this institution during the last year that the owners of silver bullion have demanded higher prices for delivery at Carson than at Philadelphia or San Francisco.

Burchard reports that the Denver mint and Boise City assay offices are efficiently managed but the mint building at Denver is in an unsuitable condition, being in fact unsafe, the regular settling of its foundation having made it unsafe for occupancy. He adds that provision should be made not only to restore the building but to provide additional facilities for manipulating the precious metals. This mint being located in the midst of a prosperous and rapidly growing community, being at a railroad center of connecting lines from the principal mining sections of the state as well as from New Mexico, the wealth of precious metals pouring in should be treated there and settlement made with depositors. He estimates that the total production of Leadville districts has been nearly $10,000,000 since the discovery of carbonates about two years ago, and believes that the total yield of those mines is not only likely to continue for some time but to increase as they are further developed.

He estimates the total production of precious metals during the year 1879 as follows: California—gold $17,600,000, silver $2,400,000; Nevada—gold $9,000,000, silver, $13,560,000; Colorado—gold $3,225,000, silver, $11,700,[illegible]; Utah—gold $575,000, silver, $6,250,000; Montana—gold, $2,500,000, silver $2,225,000; Arizona—gold $800,000, silver, $3,500,000; Dakota—gold, $2,420,000, silver, $10,000; Idaho—gold $1,200,000, silver $650,000; Oregon—gold, $1,150,000, silver, $20,000; New Mexico—gold, $125,000, silver $600,000; Michigan—silver $780,000. Other domestic sources—gold, $305,000, silver, $67,000. Grand total for the United States and territories—gold—$38,900,000, silver, $40,812,000.

THE UTE COMMISSION.

Testimony of Chiefs Douglas and Johnson at Los Pinos—Extraordinary Oath of the Former.

They Profess to be Ignorant of the Names of Indians Engaged in the Recent Atrocities.

[SPECIAL DISPATCH TO THE OREGONIAN.]

LOS PINOS AGENCY, Nov 14.—Ouray carried his point at the Indian council on the night of the 12th inst., and the principal chiefs of the White River Utes except Jack were present at the agency yesterday ready to give testimony when called upon. The Indians who testified before the commission are sworn in by Chief Ouray according to the custom of the Ute nation. Douglas was the first witness called. At the order of Ouray he arose from his seat and standing erect with arm raised, administered the oath to himself as follows: "By the heaven above, by the earth that will receive me, by the Great Spirit that looks down upon me, I dare not speak anything but the truth." This was said with much force and with an appropriate gesture. The oath, like all the Indian testimony, was translated into Spanish by Ouray and then into English by the interpreter Townsend. At first he was nervous and very pale, but towards the close of his testimony had regained his wonted composure. He saw nothing, heard nothing and took no part in the killing of Meeker and the employes and the fight with Thornburgh. He found old Mrs Meeker running around loose and took her to his house and took care of her. His time was so much occupied with the care of his wounded boy that he did not know what was going on. At the time the killing of employes commenced he was in a warehouse and does not know who began the attack. He says that his feelings overcame him and it made him cry to think into what a condition his friends had fallen. Meeker told him that in two days soldiers would come. Douglas replied it would be better to have officers come to the agency and have a council and try to settle existing difficulties, as the Indians were afraid of the soldiers. Meeker promised to go with Douglass in the morning and meet the officers, but while they were talking the fight with Thornburgh was going on though neither Douglass nor Meeker knew it at the time.

Ouray has made all necessary preparations for the protection of the commission and if the White river Utes should make any attempt toward an outbreak 50 men who are now encamped within rifle shot of the commission, would be on hand instantly.

Secretary Schurz and Gen Sherman are to be congratulated on their selection of members of the commission. Three more competent men could not be found to perform the important duties assigned them.

LATER. Johnson has been on the stand all the forenoon, but knows even less than Douglass. To the question, "Do you know whether there has been any fight at White river?" he answered, "No." None of his relatives were in the fight so far as known and he could not give the name of a single Indian engaged in the Meeker and Thornburgh affairs.

THE SAND LOTTERS.

Rival Candidates for the Presidency Discussed by Ward Presidents—The Sunday Afternoon Meeting.

[SPECIAL DISPATCH TO THE OREGONIAN.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov 16.—Ward presidents, at a meeting to-day discussed a considerable length the question of nominating Thurman for next president and considerable diversity of opinion presented itself, some members holding that it would be a sell out to the democracy. Others thought that Thurman was the best working man in congress. Others still preferred Blaine on account of his hard money principles. No action was taken. There was a large attendance at the sand lot to-day. Kearney made an address in his usual style devoted mainly to Judge Wright's action, and a resolution was adopted denouncing him as the enemy of honest citizens for deciding in favor of thieves and perjurers and pledging the crowd to sacrifice their lives in resisting encroachments upon their liberties and invoking aid of all law abiding citizens throughout the state to aid them in maintaining the dignity of the ballot box by enabling them to seat their duly elected representatives. Speeches to the same purport as Kearney's were delivered by Beerstecher and others.

CHICAGO, Nov 16.—The organization of a mining and stock board was completed in this city Saturday evening. A board of directors of fifteen substantial business men was elected. The executive officers are: Jesse Spaulding, president; J W Preston, vice president; Wm Penn Nixon, secretary, and Geo A Ives, treasurer. J H Hock is chairman of the executive committee; S H McCrea chairman of the stock committee; J W Preston chairman of the committee on membership; and D A Kohn chairman of the finance committee. These men represent capital and active business and their connection with the enterprise is an augury of success. The large amount of Chicago and western capital that is being invested in mining property is understood to be the moving cause of the organization. It is announced that good rooms have already been secured and that the board will open for business on the 1st of December.

War between China and Japan Averted by General Grant's Arbitration.

NEW YORK, Nov 10.—The Herald's Washington special says: Advices received at Washington by the last mail report that the Chinese government has sent a very satisfactory letter to Japan in reference to the Loo Choo question. This is in response to the letter submitted by Gen. Grant to Prince Kung giving his idea of what the terms of arbitration should be. This letter has not been made public but the news from Japan intimates that the arbitration of Grant has averted a war and brought about hopes of a peaceful arrangement between the two countries.

Redemption of Arid Lands along the Eastern Base of the Rocky Mountains.

WASHINGTON, Nov 12.—Among the questions to which the commissioner of agriculture has recently been giving his attention is that of the redemption of the comparatively arid table lands which stretch along the eastern base of the Rocky mountains from our northern to our southern border. The subject is considered very important involving as it does the recovery of a tract of country equal to one-fifth of the productive area of the United States. Where it has been possible to subject the land to irrigation astonishing agricultural richness has been found but at present facilities for irrigation by means of mountain streams extend no farther than from forty to fifty miles from the base of the range. With the problem of irrigation solved these plains would be rated among the richest of the agricultural regions of the country. As preliminary to practical tests the commissioner has engaged the services of Bristin Walker, late editor of the Republic, to proceed to Colorado and report upon the possibilities of artificial irrigation especially with reference to artesian wells which, in those sections where mountain streams are not available seem to be the only possible source of supply for irrigating purposes. There are now some five thousand artesian wells in successful operation and experiments made by French engineers in the great Sahara desert indicate that the plan is feasible. At some of the wells sunk by M Jus water was obtained at a depth of only 300 or 400 feet, and the discharge was equal to 1100 gallons per minute. There is every reason why similar results should be obtained in the strata underlying the table lands of Colorado. Mr Walker by his training and capacity for close observation will be able to make an intelligent study of the situation and his report will be looked for with interest.

Moving the Monolith.

NEW YORK, Nov 10.—A cable dispatch to the World from Alexandria says: Two tons and cubic yards around the obelisk have already been excavated for the removal of the monument, and the sheathing of the monolith has been begun. The masonry for the foundation of the iron towers to be used in the removal is well advanced and the iron towers themselves having been transshipped at Liverpool for this port, are expected to arrive here to-morrow. The opposition to the removal has quite subsided.

Gen. Hooker's Estate.

NEW YORK, Nov 5.—Gen Hooker is said to have left a handsome fortune which will probably go to his sisters, Mrs. Bramard and Mrs. Wood, of Watertown, New York. Among his effects is a large picture of the battle of Lookout Mountain for which he paid $25,000. He left many important papers which will probably be printed in some appropriate shape. He had prepared, with the assistance of Mr Bates of Cincinnati, a book on the battle of Chancellorsville now in the publisher's hands, and was about to begin a book on the famous engagement on Lookout Mountain. He expected to make this a notable book and military men deeply regret that his purpose should remain unfulfilled. General Hooker left no will as far as is known. His property was chiefly in stocks and in bonds and in Cincinnati real estate.

Beecher on Punishment.

NEW YORK, Nov 10.—In the course of his sermon yesterday morning, Beecher remarked incidentally: "There are but two objects of punishment above and below. One is the preservation of society, the other the reformation of the criminal. The infliction of infinite and endless punishment for any other object is a token of demoniac cruelty. It is demoniac and not divine to inflict pain for the sake of pain. If I thought that a God stood at the door where men go out of life ready to send them down to eternal punishment my soul would cry out. Let there be no God. My instincts would say, 'annihilate him.'"

Anything to Beat Grant.

NEW YORK, Nov 10.—The Sun says in a leading article: The elections which have just taken place in several states show [illegible] such an augmentation [illegible] strength as to render it almost [illegible] probable that the republicans will be able to elect [illegible] candidate for president next year. RAILROAD PROSPECTS

[illegible]

[illegible] the people of Oregon [illegible] the possible early completion [illegible] [illegible] I have a few impressions gained [illegible].

In the first place I have [illegible] New York and [illegible] some of the general president [illegible] [illegible] in Woods [illegible] Northern Pacific people mean business. Mr Billings [illegible] they mean to run the [illegible] division through to the lake [illegible] as possible [illegible] the material on the ground. The vast [illegible] will be realized when it is understood that all the iron and [illegible] stock for at least [illegible] hundred miles of road must be shipped up the Columbia. The fact that the company has already commenced grading on that division and has purchased the material with which to finish it is one of the surest indications of their confidence in the enterprise as a whole. As a business enterprise the building of this section would be the height of folly except on the theory that a very few years will make it part of a through line.

On the eastern division the track laying is being pushed forward as fast as possible, the principal difficulty seeming to be to get the material across the Missouri river as fast as it is wanted.

From all that I can learn the policy of the company seems to be an honest and earnest one. It is their determination to make it simply a railroad enterprise. The company will aim to do a legitimate business with their road but not to get jobs through congress to profit by the rise and fall of stocks or to speculate in land. The policy of the president is to sell the lands at government prices to actual settlers, with the belief that that is the surest way to fill up the country and make the railroad pay.

As to the matter of location the road will be built over whatever routes skillful engineering decides to be best. The Columbia river branch will doubtless be built first but there will finally be a branch over the mountains to the sound. The questions of terminus will be settled not by the bickerings of opposing towns or the schemes of speculators but by a careful study of geographical and topographical facts and natural laws. Whatever town happens to be so situated as to command the trade of the sound or of the Columbia river or of the road, will get it. Even if some spirit of favoritism or speculation should locate a terminus at some improper point it could not remain there. The people of various points ought to join together in the simple work of helping this great national enterprise to a completion, letting the special benefits fall where they will and believing that ample general benefits shall fall to all alike. The company cannot make a terminus for every town that claims it any more than the Columbia can empty into the sea at a dozen places. It is as absurd to throw difficulties in the way of the road because it does not touch this point or that as it would be to stop the boats on the Columbia because they do not put in at every wood pile or skiff landing.

Aside from the general spirit of the company itself, I find in the better informed circles everywhere a feeling of confidence in the early completion of this enterprise. People seem generally and largely interested in the northwest and look anxiously for such railway connections as shall open our great and favored region to settlement. In the general air of confidence which now surrounds business interests in the east this enterprise has its full share. And I believe the company is inspired by that confidence and that President Billings is moved by an honest and well grounded conviction when he brings his hand down with emphasis and says, "Tell the people of Oregon for me, that four years will see that road finished through."

Taking the hopes that lie in this direction in connection with those that are offered by the Oregon Pacific and the Winnemucca routes—the assurance that the activity of one will stimulate the other—the people of the northwest may feel assured that the period of their isolation is near its close. The sleeping energies of our fair domain will soon be roused to activity by the warm life blood poured in through railway arteries from the beating heart of the world.

THE "BRIBERY" CASES

Journals of California discuss and pretty generally condemn the decision of Judge Wright in relation to the candidates of the workingmen's party who were chosen at the late election. The Bulletin ridicules the idea that the pledge not to take the large salaries heretofore paid falls within the definition of bribery, declares that the decision of Judge Wright has no foundation in the statutes of the state, says it is not an exposition of the law as it is but a strained construction in the nature of an afterthought and denounces the assumption that the prohibition against individual bribery—the bribery of "any elector"—would convert promises of specific retrenchment into bribery of the electors in a mass. It says further:

> Dunn and his associates are offered up as a sort of vicarious sacrifice for the alleged misdeeds of the 20,000 voters who wanted a reduction of municipal burdens. These same parties are punished for an ill use which cannot be proved, and further they are punished for an alleged crime which the [illegible] have not committed, for they have yet received no salaries. [illegible] as corollaries that specific retrenchment is a felony, that people can be bribed with their own money, and that reducing taxation is proper [illegible] promising to do so is a crime. [illegible] is bewildering [illegible] the cause in the code of which [illegible] any [illegible] of law [illegible] is not susceptible.

The Sacramento Bee quotes the statute at length and makes these remarks:

> To bribe is to give something. Here nothing was given. [illegible] the candidate said, "If you elect me I will only draw so much of my salary, and the balance shall remain in the public treasury." Who was bribed who benefitted? The poor man who [illegible] [illegible] was not bribed because [illegible] [illegible] a bribe. The truth is this idea of bribery is an afterthought. The old corrupt ring discard [illegible].

A FIGHT ON THE FLOOR

Senator Sherman's Experience with a Southern Fire-Eater

"Didn't you have a fight once on the floor of congress with a southern member?" said a recent interviewer to Secretary Sherman.

"The only difficulty of that sort I had was with a man by the name of Wright from Tennessee. He was a man who drank and came on the floor in that condition. I was making a speech one day and came to the end of a sentence when this man said, 'That's a lie.' He was some distance from me and I did not hear it, but the reporter did hear it and put it down in his transcript so that next day it appeared in the Globe newspaper. This made me mad and I arose on the day following to a question of privilege. I said that I had not heard any such remark made, and I assumed that the gentleman from Tennessee who did make it, as the reporter had heard it, was in such a condition that he did not know what he was saying. At this Wright arose as if to make a reply, but his colleagues surrounding him, pulled him down. A little while after he came around to speak to some of the southern Americans or know nothings who sat around me. He addressed a remark to one of these, and as he did so looked at me with some insolence. I arose at once and picked up a cup of wafers, such as lay on the desk of every member at that time and threw the contents in his face. He had a pistol at his hip and tried to draw it on the floor, when he was suppressed by the other members. However the incident made a great impression on the house, and led to an early adjournment, as there was every expectation of either a duel or an affray.

"It was known that I was no duelist but would repel an assault. A member from the southern element came to me to find out what I meant to do. I told him that I should repel any physical attack on me with interest. He then instructed me that if the sequel of this incident was to be an assault instead of a duel there would be but one assault—that the fight had to begin and end in a single encounter. He told me to be ready. I got a pistol and put it in my pocket and I was a good shot. I never felt cooler in my life, and I made up my mind that the instant Wright approached me with a hostile intention I would shoot him dead. A friend of mine capable in such emergencies, walked out of the capitol with me and as we descended the steps on the side next the city and came to the fountain which flows half way down the several flights of steps there I looked and coming around the other side of the fountain was Wright also accompanied by a colleague. I walked toward him looking him in the eye with my hand on the pistol, fully determined to shoot him if he raised his hand. He did nothing of the kind. He probably saw what was in reversion for him, and I went right past him without suffering an encounter. He afterward turned out a drunkard and died a drunkard. The remarks passed on him at home in Tennessee on account of his cowardly behavior at that time [illegible]."

DESPERATE EXPEDIENTS.

There are signs that the democratic party, instead of learning moderation from its reverses, is about to augment and precipitate its overthrow by resorting to expedients of wildest desperation. Hopeless now of obtaining success through the suffrages of the people, its leaders are getting ready to nullify wherever they can all expressions of the popular will adverse to the interests of their party. In Maine last September the republicans carried the legislature by a large majority. It is a peculiarity of the laws of that state that an absolute majority of all the votes cast is required to elect the governor and other officers of the state. Though the republican vote exceeded by something like thirty thousand the vote of either the democratic or greenback parties, it lacked a few hundred of being greater than both; and hence the election is to go to the legislature. Last year it was the same way, only the democrats and greenbackers together had a majority in the legislature, and this gave the coalition the state officers. But this year the republicans elected a strong majority in both branches, and hence have fairly claimed the state. It so happens, however, that the governor and the council have to canvass the votes of members of the legislature, and to issue the certificates of election. And now it is announced that the democratic governor and council have resolved to set aside the republican members who were elected in several counties and issue the certificates to democratic and greenback contestants. The excuse for this extraordinary proceeding is founded on allegations of "fraud and corruption" against the successful party. Of course the real object is a partisan advantage, and the movers in it are merely clutching for success, regardless of all considerations of right and justice. In such a case one excuse will serve as well as another. This affair shows once more how utterly shortsighted the democratic party is. Should the conspiracy succeed, the victory it would give would be a barren one. At most it could only give the party the state officers for a year more. But its result in another direction would be very great. It would furnish the whole country with another argument against the democratic party and its lawless methods. Not by measures of this kind can that party, or any party, commend itself to public confidence. Something better than palpable tricks to cheat the people out of the fruits of elections is necessary to commend a party, already under censure for acts of grave misconduct, to public favor.

But there is another and somewhat similar, though larger scheme. This looks to the control of the delegations of a majority of the states in the house of representatives, with a view of raising questions as to the legality of the electoral votes of certain republican states next year and throwing the election of president and vice president into the house, and thus nullifying the popular and electoral vote. This is to be done by unseating a republican member in each of the states of Wisconsin, New Jersey and Indiana. The programme is all laid out, and there is not much reason to doubt that it will be carried through. But it will outrage the general sense of justice throughout the country, and furnish an additional argument to heap up majorities against the democratic party. If anything were wanting to complete the doom of an already distrusted party, these desperate expedients will furnish it. A party which croaks about "bayonets at elections," and utters no end of stuff of that kind, is not going to commend itself for sincerity by publishing to the country, through its deliberate and repeated acts, that its chief reliance for success is based on conspiracies to set aside the voice of the people as declared through their elections.

CAUSES OF INSANITY.

It is not necessary for any present purpose to go over the whole list of the causes of insanity which old Burton has so quaintly described in his Anatomy of Melancholy; for this catalogue, ingenious and labored as it is, would be found still wanting in the statement of the main causes of modern insanity, at least in some of our states. The report of the asylum at Utica, New York, presents the astounding fact that by far the largest number of insane, (282 in a total of 410), whose occupations were known, were farmers' housekeepers, that is to say, mostly farmers' wives. Such a fact cannot be pressed too strongly on public attention. It comes as a revelation that the monotonous and laborious life of a large class of women, who have little or no relaxation or rest from the drudgery of the house and farm and from the pains and duties of maternity, is more liable to unsettle the mind and destroy the reason than a life of greater mental and social activity. We have been told that the Oregon asylum has from time to time contained many women insane from like causes. Such a fact represents the toilsome, suffering life of vast numbers. Farmers' wives are, as a rule, terribly overworked. Sick or well their labors must be performed; and great numbers of men, otherwise kind-hearted, are never considerate enough to think of the necessity of affording their wives needed rest and recreation. Most of the patients of this class in the Utica asylum were between twenty and forty years of age. Very few were illiterate, but very few had had more than a common school education. The fact that so many more women than men from this class go into the asylums would seem to settle the question as to which usually has the harder time of it, the farmer or the farmer's wife. In the asylums of the Pacific coast the proportion of men is greater than that of women, but this is due to special causes, mainly of a local character, which in course of time will doubtless be much modified. Dr. J. F. Adams, of Massachusetts, in a report to the board of health of that state not long ago, presented a large array of startling facts, regarding the ill-health of women in the agricultural districts. His facts and conclusions corroborate in a remarkable manner the statements concerning insanity furnished by the report from the Utica asylum.

GEN. SHERIDAN'S REPORT.

A summary of the report of Gen. Sheridan, covering operations in the military division under his command for the past year, is published. He deals at large with the Indian question, and in particular with the outbreak of the Utes. This affair, in his opinion, grew out of suspicions on the part of the Indians that they were to be deprived of their lands. Desiring to keep the reservation in its natural state, they looked upon all improvements as the encroachments of a civilization which would soon push them off. Like all Indians, notwithstanding their nomadic and adventurous dispositions, the Utes have a strong affection for the place of their nativity. Gen. Sheridan mentions the rapidity with which the buffalo and other game are disappearing from the extensive region heretofore occupied by the Indians or used as hunting grounds and rightly says that the failure of game introduces a new and perplexing difficulty with the Indian problem. This, however, is only another way of expressing the fact that the Indian must give up his wild habits and settle down to peaceful industry. Every recent Indian outbreak has been, in effect, a revolt against this necessity. Gen. Sheridan urges that a force strong enough to preserve order in every tribe should be maintained at proper places by the government, thus [illegible] submission to the inevitable conditions resulting from the pressure of the whites on all sides of them. This recommendation should guide the action of the government, and when it is adopted there will be opportunity to persuade the Indians to embrace rather than attempt to resist the invincible advance of civilization. Thus a considerable military force should be kept in the vicinity of every important reservation, and the Indians, if not entirely peaceful and quiet, should be deprived of all their arms, which are coming rapidly to be of little use to them except for the purposes of outbreak and war.

In recent numbers the Graphic has illustrated "four noble sports"—base ball, horse racing, pedestrianism and boat racing, for the purpose of showing how they are manipulated. The illustrations are timely. In each sketch there are significant panels in the upper corners, and strings or wires leading to them from the contestants. In each case the issue of the contest is represented as depending, not upon the skill or endurance of the several competitors, but upon the will of the managers. And in the centre we see a bag of dollars, a dice box, cards and counters, all suggesting the stakes. There is probably very little exaggeration about these pictures. The sports of the day are mostly money making shams. People have little confidence in the genuineness of the efforts put forth by one oarsman or walker to beat another. The strings are pulled by some one in nearly if not quite every instance, and if there happens to be an honest race, the public question it because of the many dishonest ones. Professional sport is at a hopeless discount. Amateurs may still find advantages in tests of strength, skill and endurance, but the professionals are not regarded with any great degree of confidence. Of amusements we have enough, unless they were better; and the country certainly doesn't "lack soldiers," that people should go pell-mell into development of muscular activity and endurance through these tests and methods. These are not the honest old Olympian games, with a Pindar to sing them.

A San Francisco journal is authority for the statement that Sam Brannan, at one time California's chief millionaire, but of late years in more humble circumstances, is now in New York negotiating with the Mexican government, through its minister, for the possession of $1,500,000 worth of land in the state of Sonora. When Mexico was in jeopardy by reason of the French invasion Brannan, who was then flush, gave to the republic material aid, and forwarded to its agents stores and ammunition from San Francisco. This timely aid did much towards the final dethronement of Maximilian. The Mexican government gave him at the time a voucher for so much land for the aid rendered. It is said that the land designated embraces a portion of the rich mines recently discovered, and to this circumstance is attributed the delay in giving Mr. Brannan his patent at once.

Denver, the metropolis of Colorado, is making rapid strides towards greatness, according to the Tribune of that city, which says: "It is not only the number but the character of our improvements that mark the present building season so far in advance of its predecessors. Although Denver long since passed from the mushroom stage of architecture into that of substantial and even handsome buildings, she is now taking rank with New York and Chicago in the matter of imposing business blocks and elegant residences. The future of Denver no man can foretell farther than the absolute certainty that it will be a city of 50,000 people within a year or two, and of 100,000 within five years. In this view of the case almost any improvement in the way of substantial building cannot help but be a good investment."

Senator Grover, we are told by one of the organs, is sick in consequence of "the overstrain on his constitution by the many desperate political campaigns he has had in Oregon." Also, that "he has undoubtedly performed more than twice the political campaign work of any other man on the Pacific coast." Certainly the feeble state of his health is not due to any exertions he has made in the senate in behalf of his state, though he has been a member of that body three years now. However, he did perform a terrible amount of campaign and partisan work in Oregon, as the disclosures relative to the "organized offices" attest. But where is the man who would accept the reputation he has acquired by it for the praises which the organ sings to him?

Henry Ward Beecher said, at a recent meeting of the Congregational pastors' association in New York, that in the thirty-three years he had been pastor of Plymouth church there had never, to his knowledge, been any dissensions in his church. There had been trouble with outsiders, but it had only consolidated the members. There were 3000 names on the rolls of the schools and fully 10,000 people who regarded his church as their home center. The treasury was always overflowing. They who "build a church to God, and not to fame," as Pope's line has it, unfortunately cannot always depend on such a degree of financial and social success as Beecher here reports.

Mr. C. P. Huntington, vice president of the Central Pacific railroad company, has addressed a letter to the Nation complaining of the recent decision of the supreme court on the Thurman act as calculated to lessen the security of corporate property. He argues that the true policy would have been for the government to trust for the repayment of the Pacific railroad debts to the enlargement and improvement of the property, "so as to create a productive basis of credit sufficient to meet all the obligations as they matured."

Treeless Iowa is being transformed into a forest covered country by a law which remits certain taxes for five years on every acre of fruit, and ten years on every acre of forest trees planted and kept alive. Over 75,000 acres of fruit and forest trees have been planted, and $200,000 has been remitted in taxes. Here is a hint which might be utilized in the treeless parts of Oregon and Washington embracing more than half the total area of both.

Contractors will take notice of the advertisement signed by the president of the Oregon Railway and Navigation Company, soliciting tenders for railway ties and bridge timber in large quantities for construction of the Columbia river railway. The public may be assured that this fully signifies business. All bids, it will be noticed, are to be addressed to Capt. J. C. Ainsworth at this city. We shall have lively work now.

An association of women in Pennsylvania have succeeded in buying the house which General Washington occupied as his headquarters at Valley Forge, and have begun a movement to buy the 200 acres adjoining, upon which the old fortifications are still in good preservation, and to erect a soldiers' home there.

Little or no abatement is yet noticed in the remarkable flow of gold to this country from Europe. Should the receipts continue during this month and next on the same scale as during September and October, it seems probable that the total importations by the close of the year will not fall much short of $80,000,000.

The legislature of Washington territory adjourned on Friday night, or rather at three o'clock on Saturday morning. Our correspondent was unable, owing to the lateness of the hour [illegible] the [illegible] time for

BURTON'S EXPLANATION A dispatch to THE OREGONIAN from [illegible] dated 11th inst, announced the killing of Capt [illegible] of company A 21st regiment in a run away accident near [illegible] The following account of a runaway with no serious consequences appeared in the Idaho Statesman of the 11th published at Boise and is given for what it is worth The garrison ambulance team of four horses, with Col Green Maj Collins and W W Calkins inside and James Reynolds of company G as driver got fright ened at some blouses that were hanging near the road as they passed the hospital and ran up the hill towards the officers quarters when the colonel, major and Calkins jumped out making three or more summersaults and scratching them up a little but nothing seri ous. The driver also jumped off and the wagon ran over his foot bruising it badly but no bones were broken The team ran on and upset the ambulance and finally brought up against a post and were secured

FATAL ACCIDENTAL SHOOTING —Our corre spondent at Kalama furnishes us an account of a terrible accidental shooting affair which occurred on Lewis river W T Friday after noon. A young man aged 18 years named Fisher, working for Andrew Millard a well known resident of Cowlitz county amused himself on the afternoon named by snapping caps on a shotgun, supposed to be empty at Mrs. Millard and Miss Burt a visitor and frightening them The ladies begged him to desist, but Fisher said he would snap one more cap and quit This cap exploded the charge, which entered the heart of Mrs Mil lard, killing her instantly The scene which ensued when the husband entered the house and found the idol of his heart a corpse was terrible to witness The deceased was a most estimable lady, had been married but a few years, and leaves a large circle of relatives and friends to mourn her unfortunate death

BOLD ATTEMPT AT ROBBERY —About half past eight o'clock on Saturday night a gen tleman living on North Tenth street between C and D, was startled by the cries of women in front of his house Hastening to the door he saw two women struggling with a man on the sidewalk. He had knocked one of the women down, and the other was defending herself with an umbrella The man ran away at his approach The women were much frightened, and one of them was bleed ing from bruises about the head After they had recovered from their fright, their rescuer escorted them to their house on Thirteenth street The object of the attack is supposed to be robbery, and as there were no lamps in the neighborhood the man's face could not be seen, and there was no chance to identify him.

FROM ASTORIA.—The following dispatch was received yesterday at Merchants Exchange The bark W. At Turn Halle

That the interest in the pedestrian contests has not waned but greatly increased was shown by the large crowd that filled the auditorium and gal lery at Turn Halle Saturday night more than half the parquet and gallery being ladies who took as lively interest as those of the stronger sex and ap plauded until their gloved hands ached At 8 o clock Charley Thompson of this city, and W M Smith of San Francisco appeared on the track both clad in white tights and shirts blue silk trunks and low shoes and were greeted with ap plause At the word go both started at a rapid gait Thompson leading slightly and gradually gaining until the mile which was made in [illegible] Smith 8 seconds slower Miss Sadie Donley and Belle Sherman walked rather leisurely until 8 30 when both took a quick pace the former being in splendid spirits and leading by four to five laps At [illegible] Sherman gave up the race and left the track Donley walked the remaining hour giving splen did exhibitions especially on the last mile and during which she was frequently applauded She completed 7 miles and 9 laps and Sherman 3 miles and 8 laps in the 4 hours

At 10 [illegible] Emmet Fitzgerald Al Kadderly and [illegible] Buckmeyer started on a five mile run at a rattling pace Buckmeyer fell after two laps and sprained his leg so that he was obliged to leave the track. Fitzgerald made the first half mile in exactly 3 minutes and was leading Kadderly one lap At the first mile which he made in 6 10 he led Kad derly two laps and gradually increased the dis tance beating Kadderly laps in the five miles The following is the score by miles

Fitzgerald—6 10 [illegible] 7 26 [illegible] 30 7 [illegible] total 36 7
Kadderly—7 11 7 43 [illegible] 45 7 46 7 30 total 37 45

Misses Lillie Denman and Alice Donley have both retained their vitality and good humor and during the evening made some fine spurts which were acknowledged by the audience with loud applause It is safe to predict that both ladies will complete the 1000 quarters in the allotted quarter hours at 6 o clock Wednesday morning

Last night at 8 o clock Al Kadderly and Emmet Fitzgerald began a five mile contest, Fitzgerald to walk one mile and run four his opponent running the entire distance Kadderly made his first mile in 6 13 Fitzgerald walking in 9 0 Kadderly made the five miles and won the race in 35 52 first rate time for an amateur Fitzgerald went off the track on the fourth mile At 9 o clock Fitzgerald and Neil Mahafferty a French longshoreman of this city started in a five mile heel and toe walk The latter has been a pedestrian in his earlier days and once walked a match with O Leary Fitzgerald came out six laps ahead at the end of the five miles in 47 [illegible] his opponent following in 52 8

MONDAY MORNING, NOV 17 1879

THE NORTHWEST.

Southern Oregon.

The people of Rogue river valley have drawn in a greater proportion this season upon Roseburg for their supplies than ever before

During the first seven days of this month 865 letters 103 postal cards 50 pieces third and fourth-class matter was deposited at the Roseburg postoffice

S S Bailey and Captain James Magee highly respected citizens of Coos Bay got into a row last week when the former drew a pistol and accidentally shot himself through the hand

A Survey of Coos bay bar preliminary to the work of improvement for which an appropriation was made by congress last winter has just been completed by U S engineers Work will not commence until next spring

During the first seven days of this month 103 letters 240 postal cards and 104 packages of merchandise etc were received at the Eugene City postoffice Junction City for the same period reports as follows Letters 40 postal cards 61 transient papers 30 parcels of merchandise 3

The Eugene Guard A son of Rev I D Driver had a narrow escape from being crushed under a freight car at the mill one day this week By some means he slipped and was falling from the top of the moving car directly in front of it when a companion fortunately caught him by the foot and held him from falling

Prices at Roseburg: Wheat firm at $1 per bushel oats 35 cents per bushel flour, best family brands, $2 50 bacon 9 cents all around butter choice 30 cents ordinary 25 cents lard in cans, 10 cents cheese, 15 cents per pound eggs 20 cents per dozen poultry chickens, $3 per dozen fresh meats, beef on foot 1½ cents sheep mutton $1 50, dressed hogs, 5 cents on foot 3 cents potatoes 50 cents per bushel wool 20@22 cents

A contest is now progressing in the land office, regarding the title to a section and a half of land in township 22, range 13 west—being in Coos county A number of persons among whom are John Sternberg Andy Johnson, George Chard, Wm Walters, Peter Bear Peter Peterson and Chas Ross have taken up land there, cleared off the timber and made themselves homes When they came to make final proof they found that the land was claimed by Col Tom Beall as swamp. The matter has been engrossing the attention of the land office officials during the entire week and much testimony has been taken pro and con It will be some time before a decision will be reached in this matter.

Eastern Oregon.

Chas Irving of Umatilla county, suffered the fracture of a leg last week.

Twenty eight persons have been indicted in Union county for gambling.

The last term of the circuit court held at Pendleton cost Umatilla county only $20,750

The Inland Empire referring to the improvements made at The Dalles since the fire, says Our town is rejuvenated and looks well with its handsome buildings and thriving traffic. Yakima county is still our biggest feeder and will be until steamers ply regularly to Priest's Rapids Our own county is growing rapidly and although new stores have been erected at Mitchell's and Prineville during the year, we have experienced no change nor loss of trade here The great increase of wheat culture between here and the Tygh has more than compensated for any loss of trade in that quarter There will be heavier exports of fruit from here to Portland, next year, than has ever been known Our accommodations for visitors are larger and better than any town of our size north of San Francisco, and Grant county will not only make this her base of supplies, as usual, but her future great army of miners and prospectors will come here to spend their winters while their operations are suspended by the weather. There is no reason why our city should not become a great manufacturing place in the future and that not very far off. Mill creek can certainly furnish four times the power now employed and there is a project to cut a tunnel and let into it a creek whose waters now go out into Hood river. The increased growth of wheat alone induces the belief that our mills can turn out three times as much flour as they are now making, and as we are nearer to Portland than Walla Walla, our flour ought to undersell theirs at a profit. A mammoth beef and pork packing house is what would yield the heaviest return of any investment we can imagine. It would make a cash market here for ten times the stock now sold and the surrounding country would be proportionately enriched All things look favorably now.

Western Washington

It is reported that a steamer will soon be put on Gray's Harbor. This will open up a rich section.

Olympia Transcript Mr. A. B. Glover brought down some fine specimens of platina obtained in Similkamine county near the boundary line. It is believed that there are large deposits of this mineral in that region, as well as veins of silver and gold.

The new act to provide for inspection and measurement of saw logs provides that lumber districts, not to exceed twelve, are to be established, and the governor shall designate such districts and appoint inspectors therein and designate the places where the inspectors shall keep their offices. The inspector shall, at the request of any owner of logs, scale or measure the same and give a certified statement of such measurement to the owner. The "new Scribner" scale is adopted as the standard. Five cents per thousand feet shall be paid by the owner of the logs to the inspector. All logs shall be scaled at the place they are boomed for towing. All sales and contracts for sales of logs shall be void unless scaled according to the provisions of this law Provision is made for reports from the inspectors to the county auditors and to the legislature.

Webster's Private Opinion of Clay.

[From Henry J Raymond's Diary]

Until Mr. Clay's "acrimonious violence" drove him into the ranks of the opposition, Mr Tyler conducted affairs with dignity and ability. But he had not been in office a month when Mr Clay insisted upon an answer to the question whether Mr Tyler intended to run for a second term And he pressed it so pertinaciously and with such violence that Mr. Tyler said one day, jocularly, "Mr Clay, I have been so much annoyed by this, that I believe I shall send for Mr. Southard (president of the senate) and resign at once." This convinced Mr Clay that Mr Tyler would stand again, and from that time he denounced him and drove him into the opposition, thus blasting all the fruits of the whig victory of 1840 He would have had the same difficulty with Gen. Harrison had he lived I spoke of Mr. Clay's pressing for a nomination now, and expressed surprise Mr Webster said J Q Adams some years ago remarked that "Mr Clay would be a candidate so long as he should receive a nomination from a majority of the people in the town of Lexington —and he believed it would prove true The mere pleasure of being talked of as a candidate, he said, was a positive gratification, which became necessary to many men, and grew stronger with their age After all, said he, what will Mr Clay leave for future ages His speeches contain nothing of permanent value—all relating to temporary topics and never discussing fundamental principles He is not an instructed statesman—he knows nothing of the matters in that paper we have talked about and for what said he will he be remembered? For his brilliant, effective popular eloquence I suggested. Yes, said he but how much has that availed Patrick Henry? It is ephemeral traditional of little value to any one Mr Clay he thought, had always kept the whig party subservient to his personal ambition, and seemed still disposed to do so

Evarts and the Strong Man Cry

[From the New York Times]

Even Mr Evarts cumbrous generalities about freedom of suffrage were not without a rhetorical purpose They prepared for and led up to this very remarkable sentence "And, hereafter, if there should continue to be a permanent and serious threat, on a large scale in this country against the integrity and the freedom of the suffrage this people will not hesitate to accord the full executive authority of their government to that citizen who best understands and can best maintain the power of the people on election day" Reduced to plain English this means that unless the south permits the negro vote to be cast and counted we must re-elect Gen Grant That this opinion is entertained by a majority of the republican party there can be no possible doubt that it will be the controlling opinion in the national convention is extremely probable But a man with the position and the antecedents of Mr Evarts ought to be above echoing the strong man cry without stopping to explain how the executive authority which should be accorded to Gen Grant can be any more full than that possessed by Mr Hayes and in what way the former can render his authority to maintain the freedom of the suffrage more effective than he did during his last term as president.

DR. PAUL M. BRENAN

The Most Successful Physician on the Pacific Coast.

IN THE TREATMENT OF ALL

CHRONIC AND DIFFICULT DISEASES.

HAS RETURNED AFTER AN EXTENSIVE tour of the Eastern States for the past four months The Doctor while absent visited all the principal Medical Institutions in the large cities of the United States and comes back with all the modern methods, instruments and appliances known to the most scientific men in the profession The Doctor has also brought charts and manikins to illustrate his lectures

DR PAUL M BRENAN has been fifteen years lecturing on the Laws of Life and Health In his private and public lectures he has taught men and women the true system of life how to be healthy and happy, if they would only be guided by his wise counsel But all cannot hear his delightful and instructive lectures, nor can he tell everything necessary for suffering humanity to know from the public rostrum before a promiscuous audience There remains much to be learned from him as his experience extends over broad fields of active professional life This knowledge so necessary to the welfare of the sufferer can only be gleaned by private Professional Consultation at his office

His experience in the various parts of Europe and America give him such opportunities of learning the delicate diseases which the human family are prone to their mode of treatment and permanent cure as no other physician on the Pacific Coast can claim He has not only treated these diseases most successfully but has made them a life study as a few moments consultation will prove

He has become an expert in the treatment of disease weakness and derangement of the reproductive organs of both male and female including diseases caused by the

FOLLIES OF YOUTH,

Such as SPERMATORRHEA or SEMINAL WEAKNESS or LOSS OF PERFECT VITALITY Nearly two thirds of all the Chronic Diseases spring either directly or indirectly from some derangement of the sexual system and yet this entity is neglected by the majority of the Medical Profession

IT IS TRUE

That persons who are unfortunate enough to be afflicted by any form of sexual disease have a delicacy in calling upon the proper physician in time from a sense of modesty and sometimes from ignorance and permit those diseases to exist until their constitutions become corrupted their organization broken down and the hope of future happiness blighted until death becomes a welcome messenger to carry them out of the [illegible] miserable existence
